Apply

Follow the instructions below to apply for a Use and Occupancy Permit (BUSE).

1. Access the E-Permits Portal using this link: E-Permits Portal.

Note: Be sure to “Allow Pop-ups” on this website for it to function properly.

2. If you do not already have a free account, create one by clicking the Register Now link on the portal home screen and complete the registration information.

3. Log in to the E-Permits Portal.

4. From the Home Page, select “Create an Application” under the “Permits and Inspections” section.

5. Read and accept the terms of service disclaimer.

6. Select “Use and Occupancy Permit”

A screenshot of a form titled 'Select a Permit Type'. It asks the user to choose one of the following available permit types. Below the text is a search bar with a 'Search' button. A dropdown menu is open, showing a list of permit types: 'Permits', 'Commercial and Multifamily Combo Permit', 'One and Two Family Combo Permit', 'Razing or Moving Permit', 'Temporary Event Permit', 'Use and Occupancy Permit', and 'Verification by PIN Record'. The 'Use and Occupancy Permit' option is selected and highlighted with a red box. At the bottom of the form, there is a 'Continue Application' button, also highlighted with a red box.

7. Click “Continue Application” to start filling out the application

8. Complete the Detail Information section.

A screenshot of a form titled 'Step 1: Use and Occupancy Info > Occupancy Permit Info'. It includes a note that an asterisk indicates a required field. The 'Detail Information' section is highlighted with a red box. Below this section, there are two required fields: 'Project Name' and 'Description of Work/Use'. The 'Project Name' field is a single-line text input, and the 'Description of Work/Use' field is a multi-line text input. A 'spell check' link is visible at the bottom left of the form.

- A. The “Project Name” is for your internal use; it will not be listed on the final permit, however, note that it will be visible to reviewing staff, so you may wish to simply list the address here.
- B. The “Description of Work/Use” section will be on the permit and is important for reviewers. See the Notes below for additional guidance.

Occupancy Permit Info Notes:

In the “Description of Work/Use” provide a clear description that includes:

● For the Premises:

- If using entire property: “Entire building/property at [address]”
- If using portion of property: “Suite [#], [floor], consisting of approximately [square footage] on the [floor] floor” or “Ground floor commercial space consisting of [specific rooms/areas]”

● For the Proposed Use:

- New Use: “Use premises as [specific use, e.g., retail clothing store, dental office, restaurant]”
- Continuation: “Continue to use premises as [existing approved use]”
- Change of Use: “Change use from [previous use] to [new use]”
- With Accessory Uses: “Use premises as [primary use] with [accessory use, e.g., outdoor dining, live entertainment, delivery service]”

● Referencing Previous Approvals (when applicable): Include reference numbers for any prior city approvals:

- BMZA Appeals: “as approved by BMZA Appeal No. [number]”

● Examples:

- “Use ground floor commercial space (approximately 2,000 sq ft) as restaurant with outdoor table service as approved by BMZA Appeal No. 2024-0157”
- “Continue to use Suite 201 as medical office”
- “Change use of entire building from office to convenience store on first floor and two dwelling units on upper floors (1 DU on second floor, 1 DU on third floor).”
- “Use as Single-Family Dwelling”

9. Complete the Permit Details section.

A. Select the “Certificate Type.”

The screenshot shows the 'Permit Details' section of a web form. Under the 'Occupancy Permit Information' heading, there are three fields: 'Certificate Type:', 'Occupancy Status:', and 'Related Combo Permit Number:'. The 'Certificate Type:' field is highlighted with a red box, and its dropdown menu is open, showing options: '--Select--', 'Certificate of Occupancy', and 'Partial Certificate of Occupancy'. A blue question mark icon is next to the dropdown menu.

Note: A “Partial Certificate of Occupancy” is for certifying occupancy for a specific portion or area of a property/premises, e.g., when only certain areas, floors, suites, or sections of a building are being certified for occupancy ahead of a subsequent final Certificate of Occupancy permit (e.g., when the first few floors of a large new apartment building are ready for occupancy even as final work remains on other floors of a building)

B. Select proposed “Occupancy Status.”

The screenshot shows the 'Permit Details' section of a web form. Under the 'Occupancy Permit Information' heading, there are three fields: 'Certificate Type:', 'Occupancy Status:', and 'Related Combo Permit Number:'. The 'Occupancy Status:' field is highlighted with a red box, and its dropdown menu is open, showing options: '--Select--', 'First-Time Occupant', 'Change of Use', 'Liquor License Transfer', 'Change in Operator', and 'Same Use as Previous Use'. A blue question mark icon is next to the dropdown menu. At the bottom left of the form, there is a blue button labeled 'Save and resume later'.

Note on Types of Occupancy Statuses :

- First-Time Occupant: select when this is the first time anyone will occupy this space
 - Use for newly constructed residential or commercial buildings that have never been occupied
 - Use for spaces that were previously vacant/unused and are now being occupied for the first time
- Change of Use: Select when you are changing the type of business or activity from what was previously approved
 - Examples: Restaurant changing to retail store; office changing to medical clinic; warehouse changing to manufacturing
 - Use when the new business requires different zoning compliance, building systems, or safety requirements than the previous use
 - Note: This may trigger additional zoning review and building code compliance requirements
- Liquor License Transfer
 - Despite the word “transfer,” this option should be selected when the applicant is seeking a Use and Occupancy Permit in connection with a planned filing of an application with the Liquor Board, which may or may not involve a transfer of ownership. It may, for example, only involve an application to add an outdoor dining or live entertainment privilege.
- Change in Operator
 - Select when the business type stays the same, but there is a new business owner, tenant, or operator
 - Examples: New owner taking over an existing restaurant; new tenant moving into a space previously used as an office and continuing office use
 - Use when no physical changes to the space or business operations are planned
 - Previous Use & Occupancy permit was for the same type of business you plan to operate
 - Note: Per Section 105.1.7 of the Baltimore City Building Code, a new Use and Occupancy must be filed on transfer of ownership or operation of property for the following uses on transfer of ownership or operation of property, continue any of the following uses as defined in the Zoning Code:

- banquet hall
- body art establishment
- carry-out food shop
- congregate living facilities (as defined in § 202.1 of the Baltimore City Building Code)
- day-care center: adult or child
- drive-through facility
- entertainment: indoor or live
- fuel station
- health-care clinic
- lodge or social club
- lounge
- pawn shop
- personal services establishment
- residential care facility
- restaurant
- retail: big box establishment
- retail goods establishment – with or without alcoholic beverage sales
- rooming house
- supportive housing facility (as defined in § 202.2.56 of the Baltimore City Building Code), or

● Same Use as Previous Use

- Select when continuing the exact same business type with the same operator after a lapse in occupancy
- This may be used when reopening after temporary closure (renovations, seasonal closure, etc.)
- Use when renewing/updating an expired Use & Occupancy permit for the same business
- No change in ownership, business type, or operations from the previously approved use
 - a. Enter “Related Combo Permit Number” if applicable

Note: This is not required. However, if this Use and Occupancy Permit is being requested following construction work completed under a permit, entering that number here will make subsequent application steps easier.

10. Enter the Location Information.

It is best to enter street number and street name and click search. Leave additional fields blank.

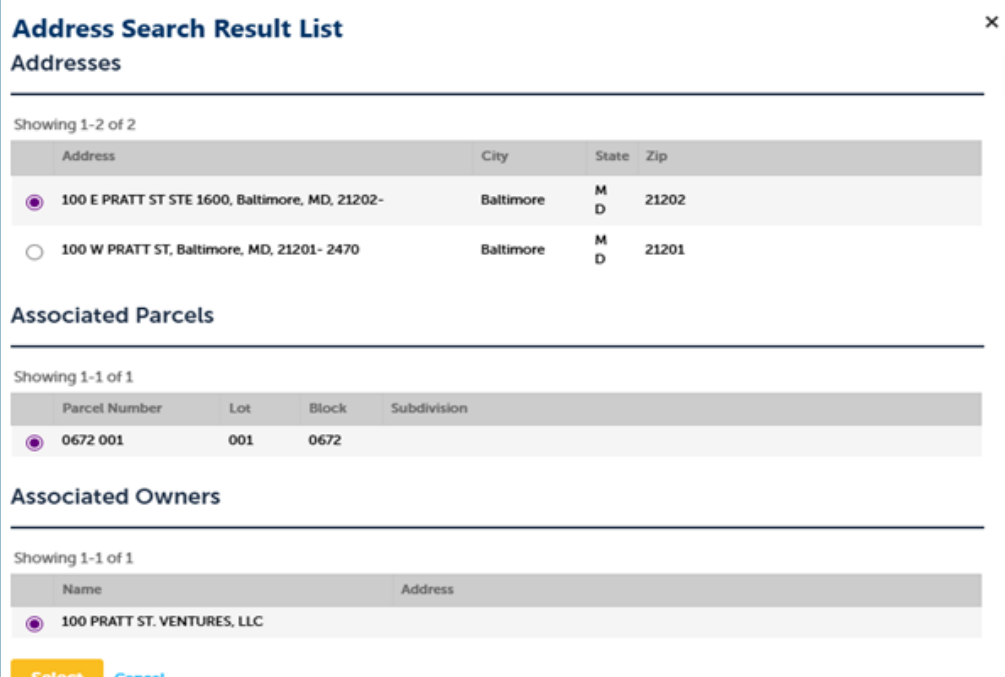

The form is titled "Address" and contains several input fields and buttons. The "Street #:" field is highlighted with a red box. The "Street Name:" field is also highlighted. The "Search" and "Clear" buttons are at the bottom.

Note: A pop-up window may display if the street address is associated with multiple parcels (e.g., in a condominium) or you did not specify the street direction and there are multiple options (e.g., searching 100 Pratt returns “100 E. Pratt Street” and “100 W. Pratt Street”. Check the proper parcel (Block and Lot number) by reviewing Associated Owners, which information is pulled from the State Department of Assessments and Taxation (SDAT).

The form is titled "Address Search Result List" and contains three sections: "Addresses", "Associated Parcels", and "Associated Owners". Each section shows a list of results with radio buttons for selection.

Notes for Completing General Project Details Section

● Is this location known as another address?

- ☐ Select "Yes" if the building has multiple addresses, suite numbers, or is commonly known by a different street address other than the official property address
- ☐ Select "No" if this is the only address or official address for the property

● Total Use Area:

- Enter the total square footage of the space that will be occupied
- For non-residential properties:
 - Include all areas where business operations, customer service, storage, or employee activities will occur
 - Do not include common areas, hallways, or spaces not part of your lease/use (in multi-tenant buildings)

● Existing Use:

- Select the Baltimore City Zoning Code use category that matches the most recent approved use for this specific space
- If unsure, check previous Use & Occupancy permits or contact the Office of the Zoning Administrator at 410-396-4126
- For vacant spaces, select the last approved zoning use category (not “vacant”)

● Proposed Use:

- Select the Baltimore City zoning code use category that best describes your intended use/business
- Consider your primary activity and how it’s classified under Baltimore’s Zoning Code
- If your business involves multiple activities, select the category for your primary/predominant use
- Contact the Office of the Zoning Administrator at 410-396-4126 with questions

● Dwelling Units (Change of, Existing): (question will only populate if a residential use is selected as “existing use” or “proposed use” above)

- Note: A “dwelling unit” is a self-contained living space with its own kitchen and bathroom for one household (one apartment, one house, one condo, one townhouse unit). See Zoning Code § 1-305\(u\) for official definition.
- Change of Dwelling Units:
 - Select “Yes” if you are adding, removing, or converting units (e.g., single-family → duplex, 2 units → 1 unit, adding ADU)
 - Select “No” if the number of units is staying the same (even if renovating or changing layouts)
- Existing Dwelling Units: Enter the current number of legally approved dwelling units. If converting from non-residential to residential, enter “0.”

- Example of What to Count:
 - Each apartment, townhouse, or condo unit = 1 dwelling unit
 - Single-family home = 1 unit
 - Duplex = 2 units
 - 12-unit apartment building = 12 units
- Example of What NOT to Count:
 - Number of bedrooms (a 3-bedroom apartment = 1 unit)
 - Number of stories (a 3-story house = 1 unit)
 - Square footage
 - Rooming units (rooms sharing kitchen/bath)
- Will food be handled or served: (question will only populate if a non-residential use is selected as “proposed use” above)
 - Select “Yes” if:
 - Food or beverages will be prepared, cooked, assembled, or heated on the premises for sale or service (includes restaurants, cafes, bakeries, juice bars, food trucks)
 - Food will be served or provided to the public with or without charge (includes catering operations, soup kitchens, institutional kitchens)
 - Your business will manufacture, process, store, package, handle, distribute, or sell food items
 - You operate a bar or tavern serving any food items (even prepackaged snacks require consideration)
 - You will handle potentially hazardous foods that require temperature control (meat, dairy, prepared foods)
 - Select “No” if:
 - You only sell prepackaged, sealed foods prepared and packaged at an approved facility (no on-site preparation)
 - Your business involves no food or beverage sales or service of any kind
 - You operate a pure retail business selling only manufacturer-sealed food products without any on-site preparation
- Existing Height & Number of Stories:
 - Measure/count only the floors of the specific building where your use will be located
 - Stories are counted above grade plane (ground level) - basements typically don’t count toward story height
 - Include mezzanines as partial stories if they exceed 1/3 of the floor area below

● Basement:

- Select “Yes” if any portion of your occupancy or activities will occur below grade level
- Include basement areas used for living space, storage, mechanical equipment, or any operational activities
- Select “No” if your use is entirely above ground level

● Fire Sprinkler:

- Check building plans or visually inspect your space for overhead sprinkler heads
- Select the appropriate system type: full, partial, or none

● Fire Alarm:

- Look for smoke detectors, pull stations, alarm panels, or audible/visual alarm devices
- Manual pull stations and smoke detection systems both qualify as fire alarm systems
- Include both automatic detection systems and manual alarm systems
- Select the appropriate system type: full, partial, or none

● Conveyance Device:

- Select “Yes” if the building has elevators, escalators, moving walkways, platform lifts, or dumbwaiters; this includes any mechanical systems that move people or goods vertically or horizontally, such as elevators, escalators, walkways, platform lifts, or dumbwaiters
- Select “Yes” even if the devices are not part of your specific space but are in the building and affect accessibility or egress

● High-Pile Storage: (question will only populate if a non-residential use is selected as “proposed use” above)

- Select “Yes” if you plan to store materials, goods, or inventory more than 12 feet high from the floor
- Includes warehouse racking systems, bulk storage, or any stacked storage exceeding 12 feet in height
- Select “Yes” for retail stores with high shelving units (over 12 feet) or storage mezzanines
- Select “No” for typical retail, office, or storage areas where materials are stored below 12 feet
- High-pile storage triggers additional fire protection requirements and may require special permits

● Rack Systems: (question will only populate if a non-residential use is selected as “proposed use” above)

- Select “Yes” if you will use industrial storage rack systems, pallet racking, or multi-tier storage structures
- Includes steel pallet racks, drive-in racks, cantilever racks, or automated storage systems
- Select “Yes” for moveable rack systems or any structural storage systems designed to support stored materials
- Select “No” for simple shelving units, display fixtures, or non-structural storage furniture
- Rack systems may require structural engineering review and special seismic and fire protection considerations

12. Review and Acknowledge Lead Paint Notification

13. Enter the Building Code Edition. Unless you have a unique situation where the property may need to be grandfathered under an earlier version of the Building Code, enter: “IBC 2021”

14. If you will be seeking a Reasonable Accommodation from a provision of the Building or Zoning Codes, enter yes here. The Reasonable Accommodation Request Form can be uploaded at a subsequent step.

• Common renovation activities like sanding, cutting and demolition ☒ can create hazardous lead dust and chips by disturbing lead-based paint, which can be harmful to adults and children. To protect against this risk, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) issued the Renovation, Repair, and Painting Rule (RRP Rule) that became effective on April 22, 2010. I understand that to comply with federal law any renovation, repair and painting work that disturbs lead-based paint in homes, child care facilities, and kindergartens built before 1978 must use certified renovators who follow specific work practices to prevent lead contamination. For more information go to the EPA website (<https://www.epa.gov/lead>) or call the National Lead Information Center at 1-800-424-LEAD. I acknowledge that I have read and understand the prior statement.:

* Will you be increasing or decreasing any existing parking on the site?:	☐ Yes ☐ No

Note:

● Will there be any encroachments on the Right of Way or Adjoining Property?

- Select “Yes” if you will place any structures, objects, or conduct activities that extend into:
 - Public sidewalks, streets, or alleys (the public right-of-way)
 - Neighboring/adjoining properties not owned or controlled by you
 - Common examples requiring “Yes”:
 - Outdoor seating areas - sidewalk cafes, restaurant patios, tables and chairs in public space
 - Protruding signs - perpendicular/projecting signs, awnings, canopies that extend over sidewalks
 - Building features - bay windows, stoops, steps, porches, or balconies extending into public space
 - Commercial equipment - dumpsters, loading areas, or storage in alleys or rights-of-way
 - Displays and fixtures - sidewalk merchandise displays, barber poles, lanterns, decorative objects, bike racks, menu boards
 - Temporary structures - curbside parklets, scaffolding, construction barriers
 - Residential features - front steps, railings, planters, or other elements extending into public sidewalks
 - Utility connections - private utility lines or connections crossing public property or neighboring property

Shared access - driveways, parking areas, or access routes on adjoining property

Select “No” if:

- All structures, activities, and operations remain entirely within your property boundaries
- No private items or structures will be placed in public space (sidewalks, streets, alleys)

Note: Answering “Yes” will likely require a minor privilege permit from the Department of Transportation or agreements with neighboring property owners

● Will you be increasing or decreasing any existing parking on the site?

- Select “Yes - Increasing” if you are adding new parking spaces, converting areas to parking, or expanding existing parking areas

- Select “Yes - Decreasing” if you are removing parking spaces, converting parking areas to other uses, or reducing the total number of available spaces
- Select “No” if the total number of parking spaces on the property will remain exactly the same
- Consider all parking areas on the property, including surface lots, garages, and on-street spaces designated for the property
- Note: Changes in parking may affect zoning compliance as different uses have different parking requirements - decreasing parking may require zoning review or variance

Guidance Notes for Contact List Section

● Required Contacts - Minimum Requirements:

- You must add at least two contacts: an “Applicant” and a “Property Owner” to proceed with your application
- Green checkmarks will appear next to each required contact type once properly added
- Both contacts must include complete name, phone, email, and mailing address information

● Additional Contact Requirements:

- If the property owner is a legal entity (corporation, LLC, partnership, trust, etc.), you must also add an “Authorized Agent” contact
- The Authorized Agent must be an individual person legally authorized to act on behalf of the entity
- Failure to include an Authorized Agent when required will result in application rejection
- The Authorized Agent should be prepared to provide documentation of their authority (corporate resolution, operating agreement, power of attorney, etc.)

● Business Name Requirements:

- Use the exact legal name as registered with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation (SDAT)
- Include proper corporate designations: “LLC,” “Inc.,” “Corp.,” “Partnership,” etc.
- Do not use “doing business as” (DBA) names or trade names in the legal name field or do so after
 - Example: Enter “Baltimore Restaurant Holdings, LLC” not “Joe’s Pizza Place” or “Baltimore Restaurant Holdings, LLC dba Joe’s Pizza Place”
- Entity must be registered and in good standing with SDAT - reviewers will verify this during application review
- Applications will likely be rejected if the business entity is not in good standing with the State of Maryland

● Why Accurate Business Names Matter:

- Ensures consistency across all city and state permits and licenses (e.g., trader’s license, and liquor licenses)
- Prevents delays or rejections of related permit applications

- Required for tax and regulatory compliance
- City staff will cross-reference with SDAT records for verification

● Adding Contacts:

- Click “Select from existing Account” if the contact is already in your E-Permits account
- Click “Add New” to create a new contact record
- You can edit existing contacts by clicking the “Edit” link in the Action column

19. In Step 5 of the Application Process, you will be offered opportunity to upload supporting documentation. To upload Attachments, click “Add” at the bottom of the screen, click “Add” again in the pop-up window, select the documents for upload, and click “Continue”

If property recently changed ownership, and thus, might not match the SDAT records, you should upload supporting documentation.

20. In the Contact List, you will be prompted to create/assign contacts. You can either select a contact already associated with your account or assign the role of applicant to another person. To select from your account, click “Select from Account”, select the contact you want to use from the pop-up window, follow prompts to complete contact information, and click “Continue”.

Guidance for Supporting Documentation

● Recent Property Transfers: If property recently changed ownership and may not match SDAT records, upload either:

- A deed docketed with Baltimore City land records (showing liber/folio numbers), OR
- A letter from the title company stating they have sent the deed to be recorded
- Title company letters must include: property owner name, property address, and date of transfer

● Right of Way/Encroachments:

- If you answered “Yes” to encroachments on Right of Way or Adjoining Property: Upload documentation such as:
 - Minor privilege permit or approval from Department of Transportation
 - Revocable consent agreements for sidewalk use
- Encroachment agreements with neighboring property owners
- Any permits for awnings, signs, or structures extending beyond property lines

21. Review the summary page, agree to the certification, and click “Continue Application” to proceed.

Initial Review

1. Once approved, you will receive an email that the BUSE was accepted for review. There will be a review by staff for application completeness and for zoning code compliance.
2. BUSE applications are currently being reviewed within 2 weeks of application acceptance.
3. If the initial submission did not contain enough information for staff to assess what permits are needed, you will receive an email stating that the submission is incomplete, prompting you to resubmit with additional information or attachments.
4. You will get emails from the portal throughout the review process letting you know if there is any action that needs to be taken.
5. If your application is deemed incomplete and/or you have been prompted to provide additional information or documentation, please see the separate guide on How to Add A Document.
6. The processing status will show an asterisk or checkmark when the step is complete, and an hourglass when the step is underway. The record status should indicate that it is "Pending" or "In Review."

The screenshot displays a web interface for a BUSE application record. At the top, the record is identified as 'Record BUSE-25-001846: Use and Occupancy Permit' with a status of 'Pending'. Below this, there are two tabs: 'Record Info' and 'Payments'. The 'Record Info' tab is active, showing a 'Processing Status' section. This section contains a list of steps in the review process, each with a corresponding icon and a right-pointing arrow. The steps are: 'Application Intake' (orange star icon), 'Initial Zoning Review' (hourglass icon), 'Plans Distribution', 'Inspection', 'Architectural and Structural Review', and 'Zoning Review'. The 'Initial Zoning Review' step is currently active, indicated by the hourglass icon.

Inspections

These inspection(s) for BUSE permits take place after all associated Building and Trade Permits have been inspected and finalized if you are requesting the Use and Occupancy permit following work that was performed under a building permit.

1. Within 1-2 days of payment, you should be able to request inspections.
2. Depending on the type of use proposed, you will need one or more inspections from various agencies based on the chart below. The process for requesting Fire and Building Inspections is described below. For Health Department Inspections, applicants will first need to have hand delivered a separate application and copy of the U&O filing receipt directly to the Health Department's Bureau of Environmental Health front counter at 1001 E. Fayette Street. Health Department Inspections are paid for and scheduled outside of Accela.

Note: For use types that require more than one inspection, e.g., "restaurant," which requires Health Department, Fire Department and Building Inspection, the Building Inspection must occur last.

Use Type		Required Inspection
Restaurant (1, 2 & 3) Carry-Out (1, 2 & 3) Deli (1, 2 & 3) Day Care - Institutional (2 & 3) Swimming Pools (1 & 3) Grocery Store (1, 2 & 3) Tavern/Bar (1, 2 & 3) Schools (1, 2 & 3) Residential Care Facility - Assisted Living (1, 2 & 3)	Animal Care Facilities (2 & 3) Old Age/Infirmary Care Facilities (2 & 3) Convalescent Home (2 & 3) Rest/Nursing Home (2 & 3) Tattoo Parlor (1, 2 & 3) Large Day Care (inside of building) (1, 2 & 3) Kitchens (1, 2 & 3)	1 - Health Department Inspection 2 - Fire Department Inspection 3 - Building Inspection Note: For Use & Occupancy permits schedule your Fire Dept. Inspection online via your E-Permits account.
To apply for a Health Inspection , applicants must apply in person at Baltimore City Health Department. Bring the BUSE # and inspection fee* of $150 to 1001 E. Fayette St. Payment options are check or money order payable to Director of Finance OR a credit card payment, however, a service charge is applied to all credit card payments. Fill out the Plan Review application onsite and an inspection will be scheduled for you within 48 hours. *The inspection fee covers the initial Plan Review inspection and a reinspection, if required.
Offices (2 & 3) Retail/Wholesale Stores (2 & 3) Businesses (Brick & Mortar) (2 & 3)	Beauty Salons (2 & 3) Barber Shops (2 & 3)	2 - Fire Department Inspection 3 - Building Inspection
